BLACKFOOT M. D. COUNCILLORS IN REGULAR SESSION

The second meeting for this year of the council of the M. D. of Blackfoot was held in the office of the secretary with Rev. Thos. D. Doherty, Rev. E. Unbrink and Councillors Deschamps and Nelson present. Councillor Boller reported at 3 p.m.

An account for a resident in the municipality for radium treatment was discussed and the council decided that they would reiterate their previous stand in connection with the account.

It was announced the seed grain by law had been approved by the Minister of Municipal Affairs. Mr. Longman, field crops commissioner, has written regarding the resolution passed at the last meeting, the matter of fodder and feed for live stock. It was explained that the distribution and collection of this form of relief would be upon the municipality but the municipality will not be held responsible for any portion of the uncollectible debt.

The matter of seed grain, feed and fodder advances were discussed at length. It was thought that in view that three members of the council would be up at the end of the month it would be left to the council to make the necessary arrangements for the issue if they are to avoid delay the secretary was instructed to take applications for seed grain.

A vote of $200 was made to the Hammer Hill school district while a sum of $100 went to the Wheatfield school.

Much time was spent in discussion, many other subjects before adjournment.

TOWN COUNCIL TO FUNCTION WITH QUORUM

Monday was nomination day for three councillors to take the seats vacated by others whose terms have run out. Messrs. L. Miel, J. A. Menard, R. S. McQueen and J. McDonald were nominated for the next day the first three withdrew automatically letting Mr. McDonald go in by acclamation. Nothing further will be done about getting a couple of more councillors as the town act provides that a quorum is enough to transact the affairs of a town. The council now consists of Mayor Ostrander, Dan McDonald, Charles Thompson, W. McKay and Wm. McConnell.

REVIVAL SERVICES WILL BE HELD BY SALVATION ARMY

Commandant J. M. Hardy of Winnipeg, who has been visiting with Adjutant and Mrs. Sutherland at Eventide Home, together with Envoys Mundy of Calgary, and the officers and staff of the Home will open an evangelistic campaign known as Indoor Camp Meetings. These meetings will take place in N. T. Purcell's old store commencing next Sunday March 1st at 3 p.m. and will continue throughout the week each evening at 8 p.m.

Commandant Hardy is an officer of wide experience in Salvation Army work, having spent over twenty-five years as an officer in the Canadian west. The commandant is a Prince Edward Islander, having come from Alberton, in Worcester, Mass., he first came in contact with the Salvation Army, later moving to Canada West where he became an officer in its ranks, and for twenty-five years traversed the prairies in the interest of Salvation Army work. One of his appointments in Manitoba were Neepawa, Brandon, Carberry, Selkirk, Morden and Winnipeg, Mooseomin, Regina, Moose Jaw and others in Saskatchewan; Lethbridge, McLeod and Calgary in Alberta, also several appointments in North Dakota.

He spent a term in the social work in Vancouver also as a missionary officer among the Indians on the Skeena River in B. C. He travelled for some time as "Light Brigade Officer" and spiritual special, as an outsider he spent several winters holding revival meetings in small towns.

GUNNERS ELIMINATE LETHBRIDGE MAPLELEAFS

GUNNERS PLAY GREAT HOCKEY. MURRAY, SCHNEFF, NELSON, E LESTER, T. AND R. BROWN SCORED OR ASSISTED

The success of the Gleichen Gunners in the provincial playdowns, so far this year has astounded themselves and their supporters, and confounded the cities of Medicine Hat and Lethbridge when they were so decisively defeated in the final games. It was not through luck that the Gunners won these games but through sheer hockey playing ability.

Local supporters and the team itself did not expect to get very far in the playoffs this year, and it would be a marvel if they got past the first round, but next year hoped to get somewhere. This was due to the fact that a number of the players are from last year's juveniles and lacked experience. The marvelous exhibition they put up when they defeated Medicine Hat showed they could play hockey, and if they played the next game like that they would give last year's finalist, Lethbridge, a mighty stiff run. And so on Monday night when they shut out the boys from the south so decisively they demonstrated they have a lot of ability.

It took all day for the Lethbridge team to drive to Gleichen owing to the snow, getting stuck in the deep drifts between here and Arrowwood. It was near 8 p.m. when they arrived in town. The local club then postponed the game from 8:30 to 9:30 in order to let the visitors get rested. When the game finally started there was a good crowd on hand and the temperature was eighteen below. It was a diamond battle and as time rolled on began to look as if the team who made the first goal might be the winner. Two periods went by with no score but in the third things began to happen and when it was all over the Gunners had their hands firmly in the long end of a 5-0 score, or 17-0 count for the round.

The first period was rather ragged, both teams were cautious, backchecked and broke up many a combination play. The first half was about even but the second showed Lethbridge's more aggressive and had the best of the play. This caused the fans to believe that in the long run the Leafs would win. Gleichen had more scoring opportunities but could not beat the goalie. Each side got a penalty.

In the second Gleichen put on steam and had the best of the play. They had four wonderful chances to score but could not beat the goalie. At no time did Lethbridge become dangerous. All their shots at Wilson were from a distance. The Gunners covered their men much better giving them little chance to get anywhere. Both teams checked close. A goal here would look like a million dollars. The Leafs got a penalty and Gleichen put on pressure but got nowhere.

In the third things began to happen to relieve the tension of the spectators. Murray scored from Nelson soon after play started, which brought forth much cheering from the over-crowded crowd. A couple of minutes later T. Brown got a pass from Schneff and bulged the twine for goal No. 2. The Gunners now set to work to defend this margin, while the boys from the south sent every man up. Nelson broke away and in a wild dash up the ice followed by the whole mob, passed to Schneff who caught the goalie far out and made counter No. 3. Nelson again broke away and again the Leafs defence was caught far out of net to make the game over. Score for the night Gleichen 5 and the Monarchs 1. For the round Gleichen 7 and Medicine Hat 6.

The only goal Medicine Hat made was a mystic since nobody knows just how it got into the net, anyway "there she was."

Many believe that we are at the present time witnessing the passing of one era in history and experiencing the birth of a new age. What the new will ultimately be depends to a great extent on our attitude to Christ and His message.

ALTON SCHOOL OFFICIALS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the electors and trustees of the Alton school district was held in the school house last Monday afternoon commencing at 2:30 p.m. Those present were Mrs. David McBean, A. F. Wilson, Mrs. Neland I. Neland, Mrs. Pierrard, Mrs. Hamar and Mr. Murray.

On motion of Mrs. McBean and I. Neland A. F. Wilson was elected chairman of the meeting. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and adopted on motion of Mrs. Hamar and I. Neland. The reports of the teachers, trustees, auditor's and inspectors, were read and adopted. The auditor's report showed the school district to be in a good financial condition. The next item of business was nomination for trustee in place of D. McBean, whose term had expired. Mrs. Jansen and Mr. McBean were nominated and upon a ballot being taken the former was declared elected.

A letter had been received from the school trustee association regarding the proposed changes in the school law regarding the power of administration of teachers contracts. A lengthy discussion followed about this and a resolution was passed that a ratemakers meeting be called for next Monday, March 2nd, at 2 p.m. to discuss the contents of this letter.

OBITUARY

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Stewart will be grieved to hear of the passing away of this grand old lady, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Bartch of High Prairie on Tuesday February 11th, at the age of 84 years. The late Mrs. Stewart or "Grandma Stewart" as she was known to her many friends, was born in Lickton, Ill. later moved to Minnesota where at the age of 19 she married Robert Stewart. In 1904 she came to Western Canada with her husband's family and settled in the district now known as Mooseleigh. Fourteen years ago she was bereaved by the death of her husband and has since then made her home with her son Charles Stewart, moving to the High Prairie district four years ago with him.

Despite her years Grandma Stewart was keenly interested in current events, and took an active part in neighborhood doings. She was comparatively healthy and active for a woman of her age, until the stroke which caused her death. The funeral took place on Saturday morning with Requiem high mass at St. Paul's church, Rev. Fr. Gould officiating. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery.

She is survived by two brothers in Minnesota and six children. John of Shermess; Mrs. Wm. Boos of Gleichen; Mrs. D. E. Hanagan of Big Valley; Mrs. J. R. Kennedy of Hanna; Mrs. C. Bartch of High Prairie and Charles Stewart of High Prairie, besides her many friends and grand children who are left to mourn her loss.

but so good whiskey. A drink of two of good Scotch or Rye is splendid for the constitution, and brightens one up, but to much Scotch or Rye is not so good, as it dulls rather than energizes. Just so, with too much card playing, men and women are slowed up, and their minds are not on their business. But, notwithstanding, newspapers and magazines write reams about bridge, men make a business of teaching bridge, and men and women spend hours not only playing bridge, but arguing about bridge. In fact, the bridge talk in the morning, bridge talk at noon, at supper time, and then bridge playing until the cocks crows. In our humble opinion on men and women would get off the bridge standard, they would have time to get down to serious thinking and make their contribution towards righting this old world, and not leave it all to the economists, who talk of inflation, deflation, and what have you, and the financial ring, who says hands off, and the radical reformers, who say "Let's at them!"

Bridge has ceased to be a pastime, as, when a recreation, or a sport becomes such, as to make a mental or physical wreck out of one, it ceases to be a pastime. Bridge is no different from love, it can and is overworked, and becomes a disease rather than an enjoyable diversion. Now this may seem a bit strong, but, casually observe bridge players at their work and if half the sarcasm were hurled under other circumstances, well it would be just too bad, after some thing had started.

Bridge, of course, in the business or gambling sense makes money or loses money, according to one's ability and luck. It is more gentle than poker, but with fair sized stakes one can no doubt make the bridge business pay, if he is an astute player. However, as others must lose for one to win, bridge has the other side the same as poker.

Newspapers are blamed for boosting bridge, because it boosts their advertisers, but very little stock should be put in this claim. The fact is that the newspapers are like another business men, they generally give the people what they want, as no businessman stocks his shelves with goods, the people do not want, or what he thinks they should have. The success of merchandising is to have what the people want. Newspapers must give their readers what they want, and as bridge is the present rage, naturally, bridge is featured in the newspapers.

Bridge as a game is no doubt fascinating, and as a game it has its place in the social life of any community, but when it becomes an obsession, it is in another category. However, it would appear that this game, harmless of itself, is just one more reason why there should be a revival of the proper appreciation of the fitness of all things. Many preach revolution, but what is really needed is a revival. Men and women have strayed too far away from the solid rock of good common sense, and the essentials. Revolution means mostly chaos, but revival means a bringing back to normalcy. Let us play bridge, but only in so far as it is incidental to the much greater game of life. Let us confine it to just one of our innocent pastimes, and not keep putting it on a pedestal, on which not even by the widest stretch of imagination, it has a place.

Here and There

Vancouver is holding this year the Golden Jubilee celebration of its founding in 1864. Some of the features planned include sports events of all kinds, music, dance, a hard job, a performance of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" in Stanley Park, a performance in Hawaii, an Indian village, a Hawaiian village, special decorations and illuminations all over Vancouver, celebrations will reach their peak in the first ten days of July.

At the annual Burns dinner held at the Empress Hotel, Victoria in February at which over 300 Burns lovers took part, the royal Scotch haggis was brought over from Vancouver and was carried in steaming hot on a silver platter by Miss Gwen Dewar and Miss Anne Macdonald. The dining room by Pipe-major Donald Cameron. Greetings were received from South Africa, Australia, the United States and London, England.

Stating emphatically that success depends on luck, Captain Charles M. Hudson, D.S.O., and Bar, R.N.I., commander of Q-boat for two years of the war, had a hard job convincing the Active Club International at Hotel Vancouver recently of the value of the statement. They thought that skill, courage and foresight had something to do with their success after hearing some of his adventures.

Recently the Royal York Hotel, Toronto held a Cherry Pie Contest wide open to everybody and the good housewives of the Queen City were all afoot. The judges of course, in order to cut out for them—or may be they did a bit of cutting for themselves.

"It is a pity every British Columbian business man can find it possible to visit the Far East, particularly Japan," said C. A. Cotterell, assistant general manager, British Columbia, for the Canadian Pacific Railway, just back from a trip to the Orient. Mr. Cotterell thought a visit would be an education, enlightening and of inestimable value in a practical sense.

Two prominent British residents in Kobe are fighting a losing battle against a sacred pine tree which they fear is about to fall on their residence, according to passengers arriving in Victoria recently on the Empress of Japan. They can't get it felled because it is believed if that is done, a pestilence will strike the district.

"The Canadian Pacific's biggest liner, the 42,500-ton Empress of Britain, to be designated 'cabin' ship following the abolition of 'first class' designation by the North Atlantic Conference, will continue in operation as a high class, high speed, de luxe liner. William Baird, steamship passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific, announced recently.

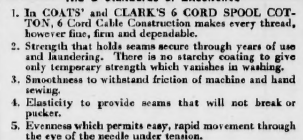

At one end of the Dominion the Eastern Intercontinental Derby at Quebec, Feb. 20-22 hit the high spots in winter sports. The other end was the Empress Golf Tournament at Victoria, February 17-21, both sponsored by the Canadian Pacific Railway and each showing the versatility of the Canadian climate, these both were industry and entirely successful.

There is some talk just now of a new commission being set up consisting of only one paid member, the chairman, and an unsalaried advisory board. Whether such a change would result in a greater measure of satisfaction would depend largely on the personnel. The membership, if such a board is created, should certainly include one or more who are conversant with the western situation and it is essential that at least one or more of the members know something about showmanship as well as the technical side of radio.

Mrs. Fred Longstaff of 22 Lane St., Guelph, Ont., said: "I was troubled terribly with headaches, heartburn and indigestion. Pain in my back were so severe it would be impossible for me to turn in bed. Through a friend I learned of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and now know I would never have been able to keep up if I had not taken it."

FLEMING'S FOLLY

— BY —
LAWRENCE A. KEATING

SYNOPSIS

The story opens with Link Fleming addressing a meeting of Boone County cattlemen, called together with the object of forming an irrigation company.

Roper Kilgo, the boss of the Rawhide and nearby ranges, who seemed to approve the plan, but was really opposed to it, had forced Sank Torney, a derelict mining engineer, whom Kilgo knew would be called upon to give his expert opinion in favor of the scheme, to reverse his earlier endorsement, and declare that irrigation in Boone county so far as Fleming's plan was concerned was only a new-fangled way to waste money.

The meeting terminates, but Buzz Hamilton and his sister, Helen, Link and Kilgo stay behind and Helen asks Fleming the question about his irrigation plan. This angers Buzz, who accuses Fleming of trying to influence his sister and she asserts, ruin his "spread". Buzz shoots at Fleming in an uncontrollable fit of anger, but Buster Townsend, Link's foreman, is shot in the stomach, and Fleming is uninjured. Buzz is arrested and sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Helen and Fleming form a partnership to provide irrigation for their own properties.

Fleming goes home and studies the plans drawn by Torney to learn whether they could be adapted to a smaller scheme suitable for his and Helen's land, and is satisfied it could be done. Feeling cold, he lights the fire and there is an explosion that wrecks the house, burns it and the plans and renders Link unconscious. He is rescued from the blaze by an employee.

(Now Go On With The Story)

They turned to see a short man in a fur-collared overcoat pausing in the doorway. At recognition that she was a girl he quickly doffed his derby hat. The man was apple-faced with a long pointed nose and a sharp chin. He bowed gravely and came forward.

"You're Mr. Fleming, I guess? My name's G. I. V. Berrens. Traveling representative of the Western Improvement Company of Denver. — as heard about a project Mr. Fleming is interested in, and decided to come out to speak to him. I must have been on the way when this — er, regrettable incident occurred. — He stood beside the recumbent rancher. "Mighty sorry, mighty sorry," he stated in a low, peculiarly husky voice. "Mighty sorry indeed."

Link could not recall having seen the man before. Berrens drew up a stool and offered it to Helen. Then, tossing his derby on the stand where the oil lamp was, he thrust back the long overcoat, apparently joining his fat little hands behind him. Rocking back on his forth, heel-and-toe, he smiled again and shook his head. "Er—I am not selling anything but ideas possibly—one might say ideas, Mr. Fleming. So don't worry about that. Fact is, in your — ah, unfortunate condition of the moment you may, perchance be particularly amenable to my proposition."

Link's glance showed plain longing for the fellow to be gone. It had no visible effect on Mr. Berrens, however. Nodding and smiling from one to the other of them, and back again, he continued what sounded like a prepared speech.

"You are, I believe, interested in irrigation?"

"Right!" At the Trailend Hotel in Rawhide I chanced to fall into conversation with one or two townspeople. Mr. Otto Pieper, president of the bank, for one. Ah—I gather that you and this young lady have discussed some irrigation project in common — together — which, one might say, is not thought highly of by other ranchers?"

"That's true, Mr. Berrens."

The fussy little man exhibited a row of gold teeth. "Sir, the company I represent, the Western Improvement Company, is a powerful, well-financed concern. We are, as a matter of fact, interested in securing a small, interesting place where we can experiment. I am not trying to sell you anything, sir, except possibly an idea."

"Don't think I can afford even an idea now, Mr. Berrens. My ranch house."

"Exactly!" Mr. Berrens beamed. His gold teeth gleamed. "This ranching of your ranch house is, I assume, a severe blow to a man of your apparent financial standing. Nothing saved, eh?" Mr. Fleming, who was a sick man, sir. Think! That's a thing should happen in this day and age!

"A gentleman named Sank Torney was slain, I am told. Also, someone at the same time tried to kill you. This — er, fire seems to be of incendiary origin, do you think? At least, some miscreant seems to have placed dynamite in your stove.

"What I am getting at," he ended with dramatic suddenness and appropriate gestures, "is this: my company will purchase your ranch, sir. We don't want it for the cattle. We want it because Silver Creek provides an interesting opportunity to try irrigation and to study the results."

"But we intend—" Helen began. "With men trying to kill you at every turn? Mr. Fleming, why not accept a fair price and leave the country?"

The bankhouse became silent save for the muffled talk outside and the impatient stamp of horses' hoofs. Link scowled as he looked from Berrens to the girl, then into space. Disappointment welled in him at realization that all Boone County wanted to see the irrigation scheme fail — actually hoped it would fail. Someone wanted it to the extent of attempting to kill him. The loss of the plans, the destruction of his ranch house — all this was warping enough. Could a man succeed in the face of such odds?

Thought of surrender was not a pleasing one. Link Fleming could not recall when he had surrendered before.

Nevertheless there was a difference between being courageous and foolhardy. He could sell out and go elsewhere, easily enough.

He gazed thoughtfully at Helen Hamilton, seated nearby, her graceful profile turned his way. Perhaps he would do her a service to scotch this scheme here and now. To persist, plainly, meant trouble. His pulse sped and new warmth went through him. He wanted to avoid making trouble for her, trouble of any kind. . . .

"How much for the Star Loop, Mr. Berrens?" became that it might be worth while you have. I've been informed as to your land, however. I'll say five thousand for the land and the buildings, and your beef at the market price. That's just a rough idea, but we can work it out on a satisfactory basis, I'm sure."

"How about seventeen hundred acres of land that'll grow alfalfa when it's watered?"

"Hi! As it isn't watered now, it isn't worth much. Fifty cents an acre, Mr. Fleming, and that's a very generous offer. Very generous, indeed!"

He thought a moment. With his

Little Helps For This Week

The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. Luke 18:27.

My soul had almost dwelt in silence. Psalm 94:17.

When obstacles and trials seem to block your way to be. I do the little I can do. And leave the rest to Thee.

There are seasons when to be still demands immeasurably higher strength than to act. Composure is often the highest result of power. Think you it demands no power to calm the stormy elements of passion to throw off the load of dejection, to suppress every repining thought when the dearest hopes are withered, and to turn the wounded spirit from dangerous thoughts and waiting grief to the quiet discharge of ordinary duties. Is there no power put forth when a man, stripped of his property and of the fruits of a life's labors, quells discontent and gloomy forebodings, and — severely and patiently returns to the tasks which Providence assigns? The mind never puts forth greater power over itself than when it yields its interests to God.

Real Rainbow Plant

Aster in German Garden Shows Four Different Colors. A "rainbow" plant has been found in a Hamburg garden. It is an aster in which four different colors are shown by flowers on the same stem. One blossom is white with a yellow center. The other is a mixture of blue and red. Botanists explain that this is due to an irregular division of cells in the plant's structure.

"So you are building a new house, eh? How are you getting along with it?"

"Fine. I've got the roof and the mortgage on it, and I expect to have the furnace and the sheriff in before fall."

Mrs. W. Boos returned home on Thursday from High Prairie where she was called by the serious illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Stewart, which occurred on February 11th.

Quite a few local worthies quietly celebrated birthdays during the week end.

G. H. Gooderham and H. E. James of the Indian office staff have been confined to their homes with the flu.

Miss Mary Hawthorn, formerly of Gleichen, now of Vancouver, was a visitor last week at the home of Mrs. J. Egelse.

Misfortune struck John Boyd last week. He went out to the barn to find his valuable pointer dog dead. Next day he was informed that his children's pony had also died.

Miss Lily Carrick, of the telephone staff, was confined to her home with a bad cold for a time last week. Magistrate Miss Ivy Hunter has been relieving at the telephone office.

In spite of the cold weather and bad roads the tractor school held here was very well attended. Those attending commented highly on the pictures shown and also the lectures.

Miss L. Morton, of the public school staff is confined to her home through illness. Meanwhile Mrs. W. Smith has taken charge of her room in the school and will teach until Miss Morton is able to take up her duties again.

A nice sized crowd attended the Liberal Association dance last Friday evening. A much larger number was expected but, no doubt due to the bad state of the roads in all directions had much to do with keeping many from attending. Nevertheless there was just the right sized crowd present to enjoy dancing without crowding. The music supplied by Mr. Bremner's orchestra was excellent. We want to add here that this orchestra is all one could desire, and many were heard to observe that there was no reason to send elsewhere for an orchestra. At midnight the Girl Guides supplied an excellent supper.

OLD SUN JUVENILES WIN FROM HIGH RIVER MONDAY

Playing their best game of the season, the Indian boys of Old Sun School, defeated High River Monday in their own ice by 7-1. The score, although a wide margin, does not imply that the High River boys were a very inferior team, far from it. The fault was brought about by the aging ability of the Old Sun team and the lack of finish in front of the net of their opponents. The game was not throughout with both teams playing a real brand of hockey, end to end plays from start to finish, but with the Indian boys able to drive in the counters.

The game got away before a fair crowd and the first period was eight minutes old when Old Sun took the lead by a brilliant effort by Arthur Waterchief who put in a shot that the goalie didn't see until he fished the rubber out of the net. Two minutes after Douglas Manyheads found the net taking the puck in close and fooling the goalie with a snap shot on the right hand corner. The game then on was a hard fought battle with both teams missing many opportunities until Joe Old Woman brought off a spectacular solo rush from his own blue line, working through the entire team to score with a bullet drive which the goal tender had no chance to stop. The first period ended with Old Sun 3, High River 0.

The second canto showed a marvellous brand of hockey which was greatly appreciated by the fans. The game went from end to end and the High River boys were only prevented from scoring time after time by the fast game turned in by Arthur Young Man. Playing an inspired game the young goalie stopped shot after shot being beaten only once by a beautiful drive by A. McNally. Towards the end Old Sun increased their lead by two more counters by Josie Fox and Joe Old Woman.

In the final period the fast game began to tell on the High River boys and Old Sun dominated the play. Two more goals being secured by Fred Cutter and Joe Old Woman.

Old Sun line up: A. Young Man; Howard McMaster, Mark Wolfleg; Gordon Yellowfly; Joe Old Woman; Fred Cutter; Douglas Manyheads; Charlie McMaster and Josie Fox.

High River F. Kennedy; E. Capers; J. Ballachev; McKague; L. McNally; J. Orton; A. McNally; Perry; Dick; Wiley.

Referee: L. Overand.
